

INVITATION TO AWARENESS EVENT ON FREE MOVEMENT

When: 30 October 2017, at 18.00

Where: University of Nicosia, UNESCO Building

Language: English

Organisers: Symfiliosi (symfiliosi.org)

You are cordially invited to attend an awareness event on free movement of young persons across the EU at times of economic crisis. The event will present the findings of a transnational research project on free movement and discuss the problems encountered by and solutions available for young persons on the move. The findings rely on fieldwork research with young people on the move in 18 EU countries. The event will present a manual for persons on the move, with user-friendly information on rights, procedures and possibilities, in order to facilitate movement and residence to another EU country.

For further information on the project please visit:

<http://euonthemove.eu/>

<https://www.facebook.com/onthemoveProject/>

Participation to the event is free and beverages will be offered to all.

For any questions please call 99561660

